

Jonathan Choo

Partner and Head of Arbitration & Dispute Resolution at Olswang Asia LLP
Hon. Secretary, CI Arb Singapore

Jonathan is based in Singapore and heads up the Arbitration & Dispute Resolution practice at Olswang Asia LLP. He is a Director and Hon. Secretary of the Singapore Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and also a member of several other professional institutions.

Jonathan is qualified in both Singapore and the UK (England & Wales). He advises and acts for clients in Singapore, Asia, Europe, Middle East and the United States on a broad range of commercial disputes. As an experienced arbitration practitioner, Jonathan has advised and represented clients in arbitrations conducted under most of the major institutional rules, including the Singapore International Arbitration Centre (SIAC) Rules, the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) Rules, the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) Rules and the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Rules.

Jonathan has been involved in some of the largest disputes and arbitrations in Singapore and the region. He specialises in providing practical and strategic advice to clients in complex and high-value commercial disputes involving technology, media, telecoms, construction, projects and infrastructure and insurance (non-marine). He regularly advises clients on issues concerning breach of contract; breach of licensing terms and arrangements; termination of JV agreements; termination of cooperation agreements; professional negligence; delay and disruption on projects; disputes over payment obligations; variations to scope of work; failure to comply with design specifications; and dispute settlement strategy. He has successfully represented MNCs, banks, international contractors, telecoms operators, insurers, brokers and consultants on a variety of disputes.

Jonathan set up the Singapore International Arbitration blog (<http://singaporeinternationalarbitration.com/>) in 2012. Together with his team of specialist arbitration practitioners, he regularly blogs on current issues relating to arbitration in Singapore, the UK, India and the region. The blog, which is widely followed and attracts thousands of views each month, also regularly contributes arbitration related articles to various websites and legal and industry publications internationally.

Jonathan is a past recipient of the Law Society of Singapore's Advocacy Prize.
