BECOMING AN ARBITRATOR : SURVIVING THE LONG NIGHT

Getting that first appointment is the biggest challenge for any arbitrator. CI Arb Young Members Group is pleased to present a young arbitrators networking forum where you can find out how to survive the long winter.

Come join us for a town hall event with Judith Gill QC (Arbitrator Member, 20 Essex Street), Paul Sandosham (Partner, Clifford Chance), Kevin Nash (Deputy Registrar & Centre Director, SIAC), Hazel Tang (Counsel, ICC Court of Arbitration, Singapore) and Mahesh Rai (Director, Drew & Napier), who will speak about building a career as an arbitrator and the appointment of arbitrators by institutions. This will be followed by a networking session with senior arbitrators where food and drinks will be served.

The registration is free on a first come first serve basis as there is limited space available.

This event is ideal for those aspiring to develop a career as an arbitrator, including arbitration practitioners, experts, academics or tribunal secretaries.
