Accelerated Route to Membership (Virtual) International Arbitration 12 to 14 July 2022, Singapore

7 Public CPD Points
Practice Area: Alternative Dispute Resolution
Training Level: Advanced

What is the aim of the module?

To provide a fast-track route to Membership through the International (i.e., non-domestic) Arbitration Pathway. The Accelerated Route to Membership has been designed for busy professionals who have some unassessed knowledge of International Arbitration. The aim of the programme is to assess whether the candidate has the knowledge required to understand the process of International Arbitration.

Candidates must evaluate their personal suitability to undertake the programme, appreciating that the assessments are intensive and that they will be assessed against standard benchmarks.

The programme covers the law underpinning the process and procedure of International Arbitration. It is therefore valuable for anyone who is conversant with the law and practice of International Arbitration generally, whether as a party or party representative. It is also an essential step for anyone aiming for Fellowship and for those who aim to practice as an Arbitrator.

What are the learning outcomes?

On successful completion of this course candidates will be able to:

- Explain the principles and specific legal requirements in an International Arbitration:
 - The legal framework including limitations of matters that may legally be arbitrated
 - The contractual nature of the appointment of an Arbitrator
 - The rights, duties and responsibilities of a party to an Arbitration
 - The range and limitations of an Arbitrator's powers and jurisdiction
 - The methods of initiating and processing an Arbitration
 - The relevance of the court regarding all stages in an Arbitration
 - The requirements of an enforceable Award
- Evaluate and apply the principles and legal requirements of an International Arbitration
- Identify, explain and apply the legal procedural principles, rules and arguments relevant to the conduct of an International Arbitration

What is covered within the syllabus?

- Fundamental principles of the Arbitration process
- The UNCITRAL Model Law and Arbitration Rules
- The Arbitration agreement
- Commencement of an Arbitration and appointment of an Arbitrator
- Obligations of the Tribunal, responsibilities and obligations of the parties
- An Arbitrator's jurisdiction and powers
- The Arbitration process: meetings, timetable, submissions, experts, disclosure, hearings
- The powers of the Court
- Interest and Costs
- Essentials of an enforceable Award
- Challenges, appeals and enforcement

How is the programme delivered?

This is an assessment programme as opposed to a teaching module. Learning will be based on private study prior to the oral assessment workshop, reinforced by tutor input and peer discussion during the workshop.

The programme is delivered over a period of three days, with assessment workshops on days one and two and an examination on day three. The programme dates advertised are the dates when candidates will be required to attend the assessment workshops and examination.

How will I be assessed?

- Assessment 1 - An interactive 1-day assessment in a series of workshops, where situations will be presented to candidates in groups for their consideration. Candidate's knowledge, judgment and interactive/self-presentation skills are assessed by oral exercises.
- Assessment 2 - A written assignment to be submitted before the programme (20%).
- Assessment 3 - A 3-hour coursework assessment, split into two parts

The coursework will be open on LearnADR for 5 days from this date and time: 14th July 2020, 12 pm UK time

Full submission instructions will be included with the coursework papers.

LearnADR will check and candidates will have a block time of 48 hours in these 5 days in which to complete the coursework paper and submit their answers on LearnADR.

- (Part One) Is a case study exercise with several questions that candidates will be required to answer. Available marks 40%.
- (Part Two) Will consist of five questions, candidates are required to select and answer three. Available marks 60% (20% per question).

Details of the assessments are as follows:

- Assessment 1 (Workshop). This assessment is on a pass or fail basis. Candidates must pass all the workshop sessions. Candidates who fail the workshop will be required to re-sit this assessment.
- Assessment 2 (Assignment). This assessment is not on a pass or fail basis. The mark achieved will contribute up to 20% of the final mark.
- Assessment 3 (Examination). This assessment is on a pass or fail basis. Candidates must achieve a minimum of 65%. Candidates who fail the examination will be required to re-sit the examination.
- The overall assessment is based upon the combined marks of Assessment 2 and Assessment 3. Candidates must achieve a minimum overall mark of 65% to pass the programme.

Results are dispatched to candidates normally eight to twelve weeks from the date of the submission of the examination.

What are the entry requirements?

In order to register onto the Accelerated Route to Membership, candidates must submit evidence to show:

- They have knowledge of the framework of international arbitration.
- They can evaluate and apply the principles and requirements of an international arbitration.
- They can demonstrate awareness of the practical tasks required in preparing for and progressing an international arbitration.

English Language Competence - CIArb training and assessment is carried out in English it is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English. Where English is not a candidate's first language it is recommended that they have achieved a standard that is, as a minimum, equivalent to the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) level 7 or a score of 94-101 in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) system. CIArb issues this advice as a guideline and, while it will not require any evidence of this standard prior to enrolment on a course, candidates who do not have this standard of English may be disadvantaged.

What is the course fee and what does it include?

The course fee is S$2,300. The fee includes registration on the programme, study materials, virtual assessment workshops and coursework assessment fee.

What happens when I register for the course?

Upon successful registration on the course, candidates will receive confirmation that they are booked on the course. Joining instructions and course materials will be sent to candidates prior to the course start date by email on the condition that full payment has been received.

Candidates will be provided with an electronic copy of a Workbook to assist them with their studies together with a suggested reading list. It is recommended that candidates are familiar with the UNCITRAL Model Law and Arbitration Rules and the substantive law in their respective jurisdiction together with the relevant Act(s) and Scheme(s) and important case decisions (where applicable). Candidates should also refer to the recognised standard textbooks to supplement their study in their respective jurisdiction where these are available.

What is CI Arb's policy on cancellation of courses?

CI Arb reserves the right to cancel or change the date, venue or content of programmes and the names of speakers, lecturers and tutors. Candidates will be provided with adequate notice of any change. If CI Arb has to cancel a course, candidates will be provided with a full refund or the opportunity to transfer their registration to the next course. Should a candidate wish to cancel their registration of a course, notification must be sent in writing to secretariat@ciarb.org.sg. Cancellation charges apply. Please refer to below Fee Terms and Conditions.

- Any cancellation received in writing 2 weeks or more prior to the course start date will be subject to a cancellation charge of 50% of the course fee.
- There is no refund for cancellations within 2 weeks before the course start date.
- Full payment of the registration fee will apply to any "no-show" by a registered candidate.

What is the Attendance Policy?
