- Describe the process and procedure of international arbitration;
- Understand international arbitration in the context of other forms of dispute resolution.

What is covered within the syllabus?

- Comparison of dispute resolution procedures;
- Fundamental principles of the international arbitration process;
- The UNCITRAL Model Law and Arbitration Rules;
- Arbitration rules: institutional and ad hoc agreements;
- Arbitration procedures: documents only and oral hearings;
- The legal framework: the importance of the seat, the New York Convention, procedural laws, and procedural rules;
- The arbitration agreement;
- Commencement of the arbitration;
- An arbitrator's jurisdiction and powers;
- The arbitration process: obligations of the tribunal, responsibilities and obligations of the parties;
- Managing the arbitration process: communications, preliminary meeting, interlocutory matters, dealing with factual and opinion evidence and disclosure of documents including introduction to the IBA Guidelines;
- Presenting the claim and the defence: alternative methods;
- Procedure at a typical hearing, including contrasting common and civil law jurisdictions; ☐ Costs and interest: alternative approaches in different jurisdictions;
- Essentials of an enforceable award.

How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered over 1 day. The day starts at 9.15am to 5.00pm.

How will I be assessed?

Candidates on the course are expected to sit the online multiple-choice assessment. Candidates will be given login details to access the online platform and then have 28 days to complete the assessment, with three attempts during that time to complete it. The questions will be based on the contents of the CI Arb Introduction to International Arbitration course workbook.

The assessment fee is £95 payable directly to 12 Bloomsbury Square. Details on how to pay will be made available soon.

INTRODUCTION TO INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION
5 MARCH 2019, SINGAPORE

What are the entry requirements?

There are no entry requirements. The course is intended for candidates who:

- are new to the field of international arbitration;
- wish to learn more about international arbitration and its benefits to users;
- wish to become an Associate member of CI Arb.

English Language Competence - CI Arb training and assessment is carried out in English it is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English. Where English is not a candidate's first language it is recommended that they have achieved a standard that is, as a minimum, equivalent to the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) level 7 or a score of 94-101 in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) system. CI Arb issues this advice as a guideline and, while it will not require any evidence of this standard prior to enrolment on a course, candidates who do not have this standard of English may be disadvantaged.
