ABOUT THE EVENT

The Young Members Group (YMG) is pleased to announce the next instalment in its YMG Supper Club series for CIArb members under 45. It seeks to provide an opportunity for young members to speak and interact with leading arbitration figures in an intimate setting over dinner and wine. For this instalment, we are honoured to welcome a special guest, Judith Gill QC. Places are extremely limited and will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

GUEST OF HONOUR

Judith Gill QC

Judith is recognised as one of the leading practitioners in the field of international arbitration.

She has conducted cases under numerous sets of rules and subject to many different systems of law. In particular she has experience of arbitrations under the rules of, amongst others, the LCIA, ICC, SIAC, ICSID (including Additional Facility Rules), HKIAC, AAA and UNCITRAL. Seats have included Singapore, Hong Kong, Paris, London, New York, Washington, Dubai, Geneva, and Seoul. Judith is regularly selected by institutions, including the ICC and SIAC, for appointments as arbitrator. She has experience of virtual hearings having conducted procedural and merits hearings remotely.

Judith is an independent arbitrator, having previously been a partner in the international arbitration group of the global law firm Allen & Overy for nearly 25 years, where she was head of the group for 11 years. She regularly acted as lead advocate and strategic adviser to clients involved in substantial international arbitration cases in both the commercial and investment treaty fields. Judith subsequently joined Twenty Essex as an arbitrator member from 2018 and after four years has now set up independently.

She has extensive experience as an arbitrator, both sole and as a member of a panel of three arbitrators. Judith has acted as arbitrator in matters involving joint venture agreements, corporate sale and purchase agreements, construction and infrastructure disputes, energy contracts, manufacturing, distributorship agreements, technology agreements and a variety of other commercial agreements. She also sits as arbitrator on investment treaty disputes.

Based in Singapore since 2015, Judith is Immediate Past President of the LCIA, the first woman to be appointed to the position. She was only the second female solicitor-advocate to be appointed QC and the first with an international arbitration practice.
